Class of 1999 Dedication

The class of 1999 would like to dedicate this yearbook to three special people: Roberta Gage, Carla Hanyzewski and Lynn Ray Boren. These three individuals served as sponsors for our senior class, and we would like to say 'Thanks!'

Throughout the year, our class sponsors helped the senior class enjoy our last year at MSSD, and prepare ourselves for graduation. Aside from all of the planning and managing of senior activities, class meetings, fund raising, etc.; Roberta, Carla and Lynn Ray were friends to the seniors. Plenty of advice was sought and given, and together we came through our senior year.

So this year book includes a BIG THANK YOU! to Roberta, Carla and Lynn Ray. We wish them continued success at MSSD, we hope they will miss us — we know we'll miss them!

EAGLE SONG

Hail to our mighty Eagles
Spirit and hail to our MSSD flag
It's colors Red, White , and Blue

All our enemies are afraid of our MSSD boys
Because our MSSD boys give them oppression, oppression, oppression and revenge, revenge

Challange, challenge the world and its four corners
While fighting to pull the group through
Even though our MSSD boys hit, hit, frustrated, frustrated, slump, slump

What if our victory seems not possible
WAIT, WAIT, WAIT, our MSSD boys are willing to fight the stubborn fight from sunrise to sunset

So, hail to our mighty Eagles
Spirit and hail to our MSSD flag
It's colors, well of course, Red, White, and Blue

Our boys lined up ready to go
Referee blows, boys hear??
No! DEAF!
And yet we all cooperate, cooperate, cooperate yell, yell, yell to support our group through!

Here's the plan...

Go Eagles Go!

Homecoming Princesses

The crowd gathers

Team

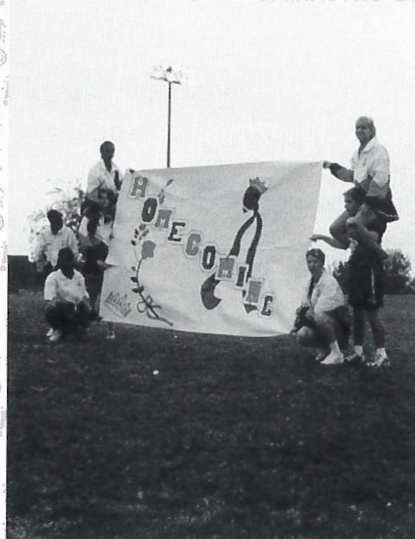

We have a carnival during 1998 Homecoming day. Kitty Bottoms and Sean Moore were crowned as Homecoming Queen and King during that time. MSSD beat ISD by 35-0. During that time, we also have fun time with all ISD players.

Coach Miller got soaked by players!

It's time

Flag boy, Jamar!!!

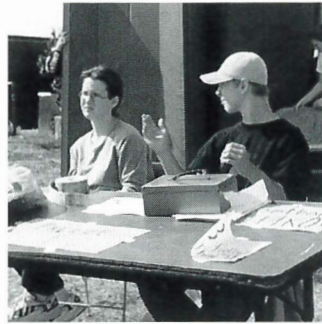

Spirit!

Are you ready?

Carnival & Dance

Is Matthew talking to himself?

Candace's secretly professional painter.

We didn't know that Shira was a gypsy!

Darlene was waiting for someone to throw the ball to make her drown in the water.

Many people were gathered to get their appetites satisfied and chat and have good times.

Mike is making cotton candy for MSSD students who are craving for some.

Jesse is going to throw the ball to destroy the mat!

Stephanie, Lisa, and Carol are letting all balloons go!

Homecoming Dance

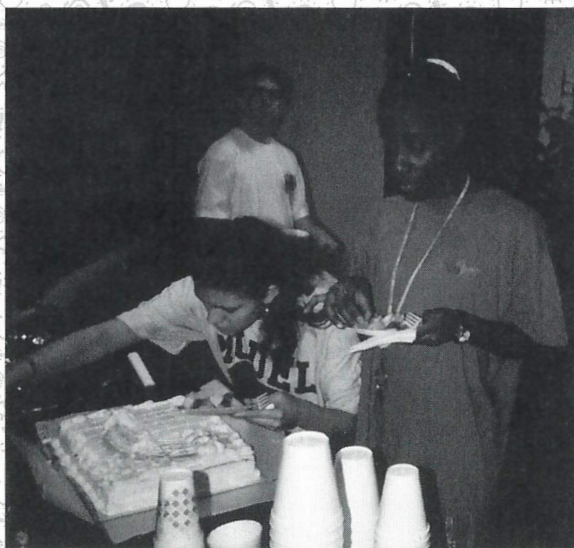

RHA and RHB staff hosted a Christmas party for students at RHB. Darla Konkel was in charge of the party. They had fun as they played different games. Students who were involved in one contest had to push the toy cars with their nose.

What is your problem, Betsie?

Delicious food?#&*)+?

RHB staff hosted big Christmas party. Each wing staff gave their wing girls lovely gifts and exchanged the gifts. They played the "Farout" game like they have to shake the dice to see if the person had two same numbers then pulled the paper wrap off the box with gloves on. It was fun game!

RHB Spirit Staff

Any luck, Kitty?

Too old for the Christmas party, Holly?

Screaming for HELP, Simi!

Plenty of food for you, Valencia?

Did you make it, Stephanie?

"13 SENIORS & Butch"

Staff Mary Angoonari hosted the Snowball party off campus. The students had a wonderful time and enjoyed skating all night. They went back to MSSD and also had a party at Eagle Center and announced the Snowball Princess/Prince. They were Melissa Siegert and Tyrone Barnes.

Snowball

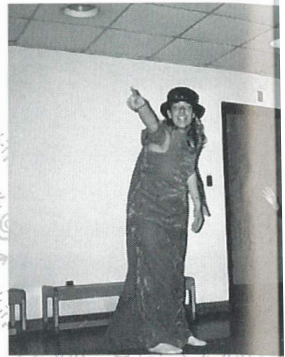

Jr. NAD members hosted a "Mardi Gras" party at Eagle Center. The Chairpe Betsie Delaune made the party the most exciting one. They had to drink a sh lemon juice. Betsie threw the beads in the audience. The traditional of "Mardi C demands to have "King Cake" which has a small baby toy inside of cake. The p who found the baby toy inside the cake is meant to host the party next year.

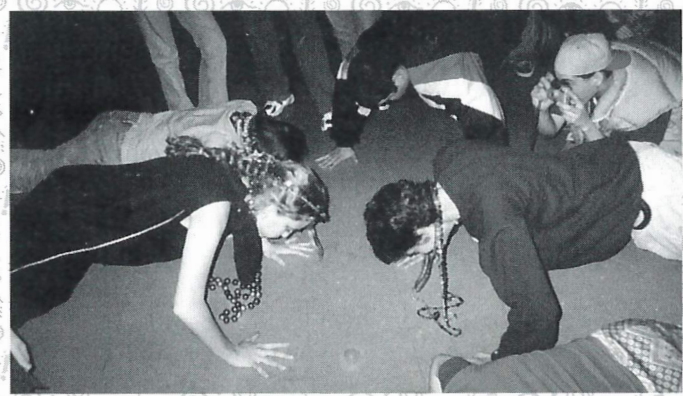

Many beads from Louisiana!

Ready? ...1...2...3 Go Go Go!

Shira and Betsie gave a brief performance!

Looking for something?

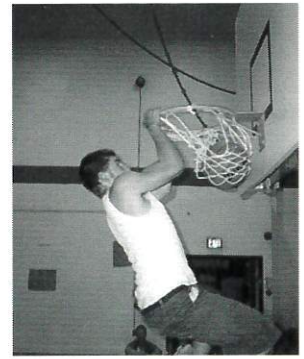

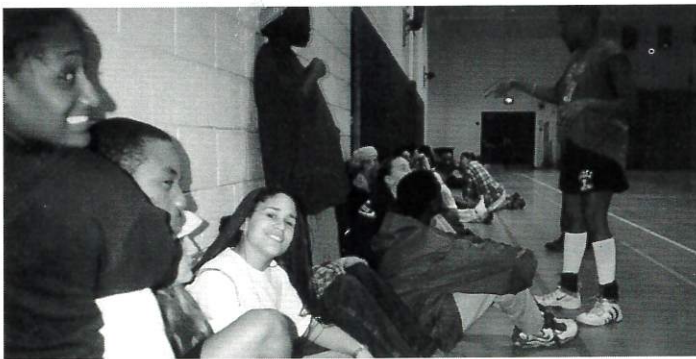

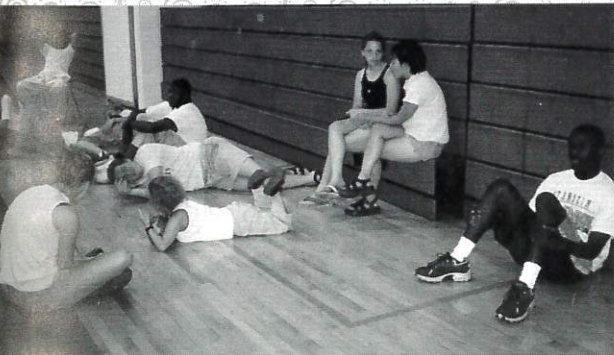

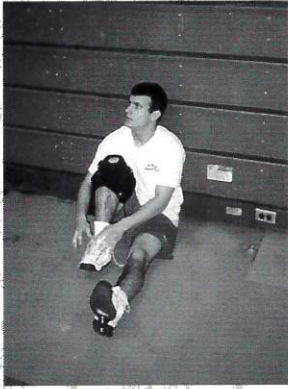

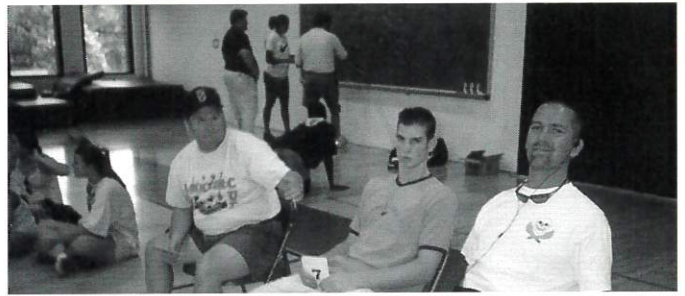

Delicious King cakes!

Mardi Gras fun!

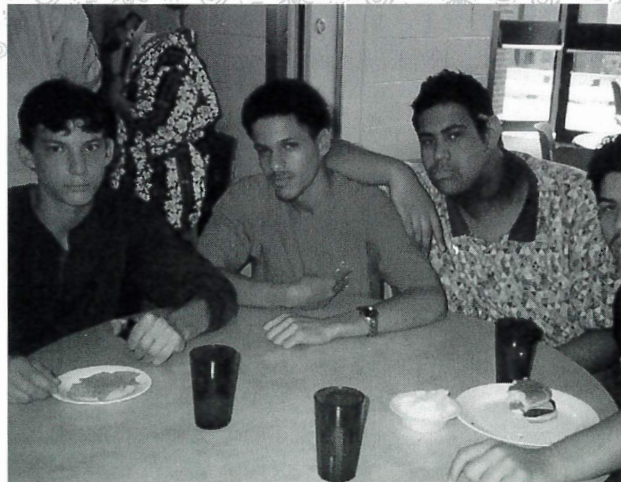

Students love going to Intermural games every night. They love to play basketball, volleyball, and other events after dinner.

MSSD Play

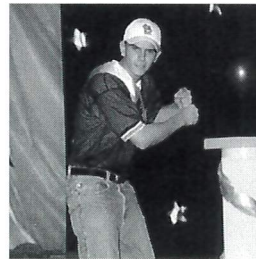

A group of "Deafywood" from Los Angeles, California gave us their special performance!

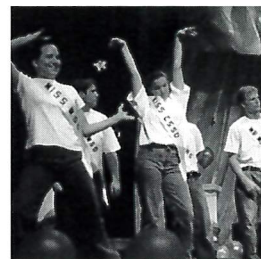

The first ever Mr/Ms Deaf Teen America Pageant was held at MSSD. Many schools participated, including schools as close as Maryland School for the Deaf, and as far as Washington State School for the Deaf! Contestants arrived for the long weekend, with time to meet new and old friends. Then the competition began. Interviews, talent, home town spirit, and evening wear, were the categories. The three judges for the contest were selected from well-known individuals who are active in the Deaf community. The judges were: Frank Turk, Sr.; Al Couthen, Carolyn McCaskill, Becky Gage and Lindsey Dunn.

MSSD Family Weekend 1999

The MSSD Family Weekend 1999 was a big success. But just as it takes a village to raise a child, so does it take a campus to plan and organize a Family Weekend! Everyone helped to prepare MSSD for a visit from parents, siblings, aunts, uncles, foster families, cousins, step-parents, and friends.

Many activities were planned, including workshops for parents to attend, a cook-out, performance by the dance group, even a Sunday brunch for Mother's Day.

The weekend was a lot of fun, giving students time to show their parents just what they are doing while here at MSSD. Also teachers and staff had time to interact with students and their families.

We are all looking forward to the next MSSD Family Weekend — better get started planning it now!

FUN!!!

Gonzaga to the Top

Gonzaga College High School is an all boys Catholic preparatory school located near K and North Capitol Streets, N.W. Eleven students from MSSD are currently mainstreamed at Gonzaga, or "Gonzy" as we call it. The reason for this is because these students had desires for more challenging experiences. (Plus, some girls wanted to meet boys.) Most of the students take English class, but they do have fascinating elective courses as well, such as Psychology I and Political Science. The students have to take a little gold Gallaudet University bus to get to Gonzaga. There are interpreters from Gallaudet Interpreting Service who assist us in our learning. In most classes, prayers are recited at the beginning of the class. Gonzaga enforces a strict dress code — no jeans, T-shirts, or sneakers are allowed.

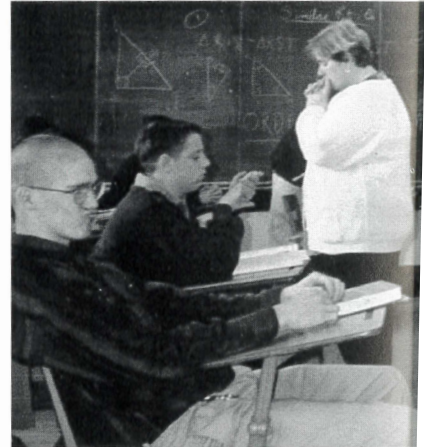

-Naomi Sheneman

Going Up: Charlie the Dog, Sarah Pack, Barbara Hussey, Aaron Kubey, Naomi Sheneman, Ryan Commerson, Alexandria Wailes, Margie English, Tiffany Green, Kristi Ann No, Lauren Teruel, and Brein McNamara.

Aaron Kubey smiles in anticipation of some serious learning!

Ryan Commerson's teacher prays that he will behave!

Gonzaga's school seal.

Tiffany Green and Naomi Sheneman laugh at the teacher's joke.

ACADEMIC BOWL

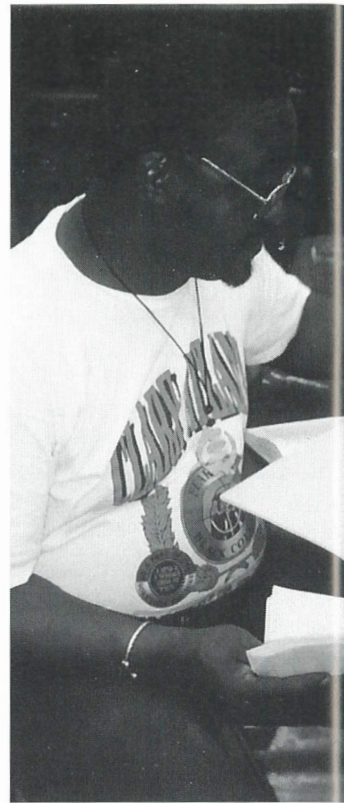

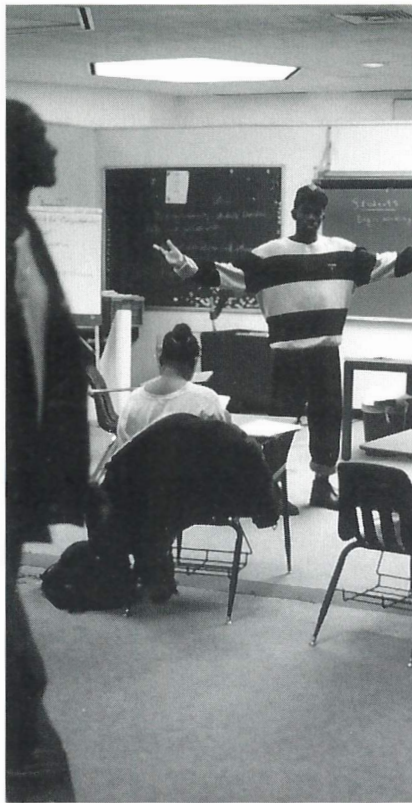

The Academic Bowl team was comprised of the best and brightest of students at MSSD. They were required to be proficient in nearly every category (history, deaf studies, geography, entertainment, mathematics, current events, science, fine arts, and literature) for the competition. After a strict screening process, ten players were chosen from the entire sophomore, junior and senior classes. From there, the players were Renato Souza, Candace Myers, Patrick Rosenburg, Darla Konkel, and Pam Siebert. The MSSD Academic Bowl team went to regional competition hosted by Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind. West Virginia School for the Deaf, Maryland School for the Deaf, Marie Katzensburgh School for the Deaf (NJ), West Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, MSSD and host VSDB were the participants of Mid-Atlantic Regional Competition. MSSD Academic Bowl team defeated every school except VSDB (in which they lost by one scant point) in the preliminaries and made it to the finals. Except they had to face VSDB again. In the first round, VSDB answered nearly every question and build a huge lead. MSSD regrouped and matched them in the 2nd round. In the last rounds, MSSD fought hard and tried to catch up. But the rush was too late as VSDB defeated them in the end. But even in defeat, the MSSD Academic Bowl players held their heads up with grace and dignity.

Coaches Dusan Jaksic and Janice Warshaw are very proud of them and are honored to have been a part of such a wonderful group.

Dear Graduating Seniors:

CONGRATULATIONS to the Class of 1999! As the new millennium approaches, you are graduating at a very exciting time. The new millennium represents a critical turning point, the era of a "golden dream," and so too, does your graduation from MSSD at this time. Think about your golden dream and go down the journey to achieve your goals. You are graduating from MSSD, a school of golden opportunities. MSSD has given you the tools to go forth and accomplish whatever dream you set out to pursue. As you begin your new journey, take to heart this advice from Orison Swett Marden: "All who have accomplished great things have had a great aim, have fixed their gaze on a goal which was high, one which sometimes seemed impossible."

Graduating MSSD Eagles, go forward and soar, soar, soar as high as you can to achieve the impossible in the new golden era!

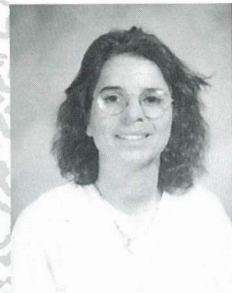

Sincerely,

Katherine A. Jankowski, Ph.D.

Senior Poem

"Flight to the Sun"
by Candace Myers

Into the bright eye of catharsis
We stare
The memories of all these years
Flash by

The path to freedom and enlightenment
As many a wise man has foretold
Is long
And our journey certainly has been

All these years
In white rectangular rooms-
We never thought we'd be liberated so soon.

These years on the path
Have become well-worn steps
Each step bringing new experiences,
Knowledge, memories, feelings, thoughts, and over time
We found ourselves when we weren't looking

Yesterday, as babes, we knew not the meaning of Nor had the means
To fly

Today, no longer fledglings, the eagle within that Yearns.....longs to be free
Finally into the circle of blazing sun
Flies.

When I started wrestling during the match, I feel embarrassed because I am not used to people staring at me at the match. -Tim Lowe

When I was a Freshman, I was the first person to go to the football practice. I knew nothing about football system. I was embarrassed to make several mistakes, my head coach had explained where I was supposed to play and defense other players. I learned and improved alot. I got an award (MIP) last year. It made me feel so proud of myself. -Peter Fassilis

During the Volleyball game in Georgetown, we played against Georgetown VB team and I was sitting on the chair and plan to see the scoreboard but I was out of control. Because the chair was loose it caused me to fall down on the floor. As everyone was staring at me even one of our VB player served the ball and other team player missed hitting the ball as it was on the floor. We got the point!!! -Rebecca Handley

I was cheerleader for football team and we all went to Florida School for the Deaf. During the football game, I cheered real loud however, I fell down on the ground becuz of heavy rain on the ground. I was so embarrassed! -Valencia Holton

Stephen Herbert, Fr.
Football

About 4 years ago, I went to karate class and I was very shy because there were many people looking at me. My face has shown RED and last year, my face has shown less red because I worked hard and my face has shown the normal color! -Brian O'Hara

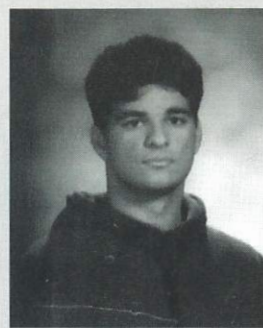

My most embarrassing moment in my life was in football. When I was in 8th grade, my teammates were hearing. My coach told me to play as full back as I thought I was punished so I run around the baseball field. My team started laughing at me. Oops! I misunderstood what my coach said. -Stephen Herbert

Priscilla Harris, Soph
JV Basketball

During the basketball practice, the ass't coach, Marie Shook passed the ball to me but another coach, Smrz held my shirt. I caught the ball but I fell on the floor for no reason. Everyone stared at me and laughed so hard at me. -Marie Harris

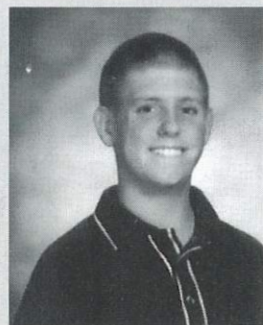

I remember when I was 11 yrs old. I was a student at PSD and there was a tournament. It was my first year of playing basketball. When my team had the ball and I played defense. Suddenly, I thought she would give the ball to the third player but it was sent to me and I didnt pay attention to the ball. I feel so stupid and embarrassed as there were many people watching me. -Stephanie Roesner

MELISSA MARIE SIEBERT
 To my Melissa:
 Your family is so proud of you! From the time you were born, you have always been a true blessing and a gift in our lives. I believe in you and know you have the strength, faith and courage to obtain your goals. Always trust and pray to God and you will have peace, serenity, and direction. God bless you. We love you!
 Mom, Jimmy, Joey, and (Daddy in heaven)

MIKE WOLSET
 Dear Mike,
 I might have carried you under my heart for 10 months, but you will be in our hearts for life. We couldn't be more proud of you, for all the accomplishments and difficulties you've overcome. You have gone down the road of humility few people travel, but it has made you more sensitive to the hurts and pain of others, and made you stronger. You have grown to become a very fine young man. We are blessed to have you as our son. May the faith we instilled in you continue to grow stronger each new day! May this special milestone in your life be just the beginning... For we are giving you roots now, and the wings to fly..... Congratulations!
 Love always,
 Mom & Dad
